It all began in Odense

It started with a lamp shop on Jernbanegade, the Herstal family turned an idea into form. An idea born not from grand gestures, but from something ordinary – the delicate spokes of a bicycle wheel.

Lines of steel. A circle of balance.
Those spokes became design.
Design became light.
And the first Herstal lamp was born sharp in its function, soft in its glow.

From that moment, light was never just light.
It was mood. It was presence. It was the quiet rhythm of a home, the soft glow in a room, the pulse of a city seen from inside.

Today, Herstal stands stronger than ever always true to its roots. Still Danish at heart. Still devoted to light that does more than shine.

Herstal.
Where there is light, there is more.

Ballon

Soft shapes, strong presence

The city's buzz outside. Calmness within. Ballon balances both. With rounded forms, clean lines, and a vibe you can't quite put your finger on. Designed for the rhythm of everyday life – and the rest in between. Table, floor, wall, ceiling. Four expressions. One calm. It glows without glaring. Makes a statement without disturbing. In the hallway. The bedroom. Or right in the middle of it all. Ballon is not just shape. It's feeling. A nod to the classic. A given in the present. Urban grace. Timeless edge.

Where there is light, Ballon adds grace.

Bowl

Natural rhythm, nordic feeling

Silent space. Soft shapes. Bowl hangs where everyday life meets rest - creating calm in motion. A curved metal shade. An oak top. Two materials. One whole. The design is honest. The light spread generous. Bowl brings weight above the dining table yet leaves room for conversation. There's something about the contrast. The cool steel against the warm wood tone. Minimalist, but never cold.

Where there is light, Bowl brings balance

Cut

Sharp light, soft lines

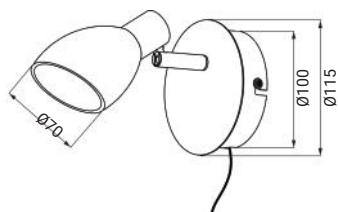

Clean shapes. Black metal. Opal glass that glows. Cut is clear. Honest. And always ready. Stylish in the home office. Pure in the hotel room. Natural in the living room. A spotlight in the hallway. A wall lamp by the bed. A floor lamp framing a corner. Cut finds its place. Everywhere.

The light is warm. The form is straight. Minimalism with presence. A look that lasts. No excess. Just what you need. For homes where everyday life meets vibe. For rooms that want more than just light. Cut is discreet, but never boring. It does the job. And sets the mood. the light falls. The form stands.

Where there is light, Cut brings clarity

Evoke

Function meets pure design

Minimalist. Sleek. Simple. Evoke blends in - without fading away. Soft glow. Strong character. Up and down, around the corner, wherever you want it. Hallway, bedroom, living room - or the bathroom with IP44. It's smart. Discreet. Impactful.

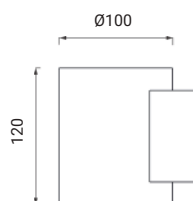

Danish simplicity meets industrial edge. Evoke is more than a lamp. It creates atmosphere. Sets the tone. Warmth in the city's pulse. When function is as beautiful as form. When light is both subtle and strong.

Where there is light, function blends with edge

Grain

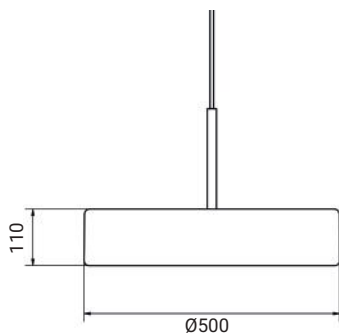

Carries the pulse of the city

Matte black. Pure form. A feeling that lingers.
Grain is more than lighting – it's atmosphere.
Ceiling, floor, or table. Every room comes alive.
Details that catch the eye.

The light is soft. Warm. Present. Place it. Switch it on. Feel it. Grain sets the mood. A vibe that stays with you. In the living room. At the office. Wherever you want to elevate. Minimalism with an edge.

Where there is light, Grain sets the mood

Harlekin

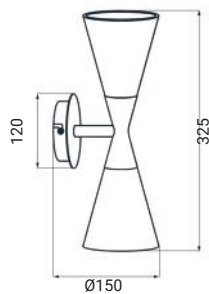

Soft glow, sharp character

Two cones. One rhythm. Harlekin plays with contrast. Soft opal glass, a focused silhouette, light that moves both up and down. A shape that feels familiar, yet lands firmly in the now. Perfect in the hallway, bedroom, or along a calm living room wall. It glows with quiet confidence, adding depth without demanding attention. Urban, elegant, unmistakably Herstal. A small gesture with big atmosphere. Light that shapes the room.

Street

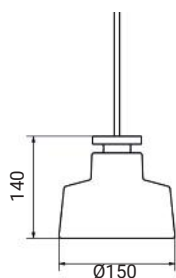

Light with edge

Straight from the street. Into your space. Street is energy. Rhythm. Movement. Metal meets wood. Raw meets warm. A contrast that truly works. At home in the city. In the studio. In the kitchen. Street sets the tone – relaxed and confident. No imitation. Just its own style. Street is lighting with edge. It nods to industry. Tips its hat to design. Bringing you vibe. And light. Street – urban from the start. Alive every time.

Where there is light, design leads the way. .

Tentacle

Light with character

Layer upon layer. A shape in motion. Glowing transparency. Carried by acrylic. Tentacle catches the eye. Sets the mood. Like a piece of jewelry for your room. Just as striking in the hallway as above the table. In the bathroom. The bedroom. The office. This is design with edge. Light with presence. Soft – yet bold. Tentacle knows what it is. Not your average fixture. Just a new way to shine.

Where there is light, layers come alive.
